

LEADING EXECUTION

Strategic leadership can be defined as leaders' ability to anticipate, envision, maintain flexibility and empower others to execute.

- ✓ It is multi-functional role. It involves managing through others and empowering them to act and follow-through on defined actions with a sense of urgency.
- ✓ It involves a style of management that embraces top-down direction with upward influence, feedback and input.
- ✓ It is the courage to address the silent killers of change. It is focused dedication to addressing conflicts, promoting constructive debates and enabling collaboration.
- ✓ It is being decisive in making decisions in difficult times and often with incomplete data that ensure the execution journey stays on course and actions deliver result.

The leadership team's ability to lead change and inspire across all levels of the organisation and externally with stakeholders would make a significant difference to the success of the strategy.
